

Held-out error by model and world

Per speaker

Ratio against noise

Model G is the correct model for dataset A and a mis-specified one for dataset B. The gap between the two ratios is the measurable signature of groupoid structure; the group-data ratio is the baseline that Gpd's larger parameter count buys anyway.